Our Consulting practice

As the world's largest professional services organisation, Deloitte helps clients solve their most complex problems, from strategy to implementation. We are differentiated by our capabilities to execute the advice we provide to help clients in the markets where they operate today and where they want to be in the future. Delivering this kind of value requires the integration of a broad range of talent and skills across our service areas – Strategy & Operations, Human Capital and Technology, to ensure we meet the unique needs of our clients.

Deloitte Consulting is one of the fastest growing Consulting practices globally and through our work with some of the region's major corporations and government agencies, we have achieved outstanding growth and success even during volatile times.

Comprising approximately 330 partners and 8,330 professionals in 25 office locations in Deloitte SEA, this collaboration enables our professionals to use their combined size, scale and expertise to offer greater breadth and depth of service to our clients across the region.
